

WESTMINSTER
where art + faith + nature meet

Who are we?

Yes, we are a church. We believe in a God who is loving and creative, a God who is bigger than any one of us could ever imagine. And we believe that God calls us, all of us, to be loving and creative people in the world. So, yes, we are a church. And we are so much more than that too. We are also a park, a theater, a preschool, an urban forest, a playground, a community garden...and so much more. We are a place where no matter who you are or what you believe you are welcome here. We invite all people to come learn, explore, create, play, or just be. Our dream is that here in this place people can breathe in love, so that more love can be breathed back out into the world.

Come on...how rad is that? Don't you want to be a part of this?

Who we need?

Do you love all kinds of music from hymns to Broadway tunes to classical to rock to folk to pop and on and on? Have you always wanted to reimagine what a music program could be at a small, creative, open church? Is bringing people together to create music a special gift of yours? Can you sing and play piano and guitar or other instruments? How about read music? Are you a natural and kind leader? Are you particularly gifted at collaborating and encouraging others in their love of music? Can you think ahead, dream, research, plan, and then reach out and organize musicians? Does the idea of bringing art, faith, and nature together in meaningful ways get you excited?

Does that sound like you? Cool! That's just who we are looking for at Westminster!
